

Dear Lord above, we thank You here, for food, and health, and loved ones near. Please bless this meal, our hearts renew, to grow our faith and trust in you.

Amen.

"Being a Christian is less about cautiously avoiding sin than about courageously and actively doing God's will".

Dietrich Bonhoeffer

"When they saw him, they worshipped him; but some doubted."

Matthew 28:17

REMEMBER this week

Growing in acceptance is embracing who you really are and believing Jesus goes with you anyway.

- 1. Share your highs and lows.
- 2. What is something nice someone has said about you that you found hard to accept?
- 3. Why do you think we sometimes find it hard to accept the good things people say about us?
- 4. What are some things that you know God says about you in the Bible? Do you find them easy or difficult to accept?
- 5. What are some things you know God says about himself in the Bible? Do you find them easy or difficult to accept?
- 6. God accepts you just as you are. What does it mean to you to know that God accepts you like that?
