

Living Out Loud

every night...every home

15th December 2019

living sharing growing

REMEMBER this week

God has visited this world and what he promises is so much beyond human ability that it is almost unbelievable. But don't underestimate what the grace and love of God can do. For when you are willing to enter into and believe God's Word, the promise will become true for you too and fill your lips with a joyful song for eternity.

table GRACE

God of joy and God of grace

Fill us with patience in this place.
Bless this meal and our Advent too,
as in your Son Jesus,
all your promises come true.
Amen.

VERSE of the week

"Praise the Lord, the God of Israel,
because he has visited and redeemed his people"

-Luke 1:68

THOUGHT for the week

"If you have no joy,
there's a leak in your Christianity
somewhere."

- Billy Sunday

1 lets SHARE

1. Share your highs and lows?
2. What is your happiest memory?
3. If you had to make a list of your favourite things, what would be the top 3 items?
4. What is the biggest promise you have ever made to someone?
5. Why is it important to keep your promises? What happens when you don't keep them?
6. God makes lots of promises in the Bible. How many can you think of?
7. The best thing about God's promises is that he always keeps them. How does it make you feel knowing that you can always trust God's promises?

2 lets READ

5 lets BLESS

Bless each other with the sign of the cross as you say the following:

Name, may the joy of Jesus play loudly in your ears this Christmas.
Amen

4 lets PRAY

PRAISE GOD for faithfully keeping all His promises.

THANK JESUS for the new life and fulness of joy he brings.

ASK THE HOLY SPIRIT to help you overflow with joy and trust more deeply in God's promises and faithfulness.
